A Diligent Body

Many times these conscientious leaders supervise behind the scene to provide SMJC with improvements and new facilities. Often we students pass their offices and see them working over littered desks of paper, never knowing about the burdens their jobs require. This competent team of leaders is always ready to assist and counsel students with future plans. The Board of Trustees and Board of Supervisors are composed of civic leaders from Pike, Walthall, and Amite counties. These men and women work together and plan for the betterment of SMJC. Their work is greatly appreciated.

Victorious in Spirit and Attitude

If one was to look back on the 1972 Southwest football season he might remark that it must have been pretty boring. It wasn't. The best team effort of Notre Dame could have done no more. The Bears were the smallest team in the junior college loop and they were playing some of the best teams in the down fallen conference.

The year saw head coach Jerry Reid replaced by Floyd Davis. Davis is a Tylertown native with six years experience in the coaching field.

The crowning event of the year was the selection of Doug Varnado and James Sturdivant to the all state team. Both were defensive standouts on the Bears unit.

The team met with misfortune from the start as injuries plagued the Bears and some tough breaks put the skids to the Bears record. Sophomore quarterback Gary Lee injured and the pendulum started its deadly swing. Lee never returned to action as the Bears lost one after another. His replacements, Butch Williams and Sonny Roberts, performed well. The Bears lost some very close games and never went down without a fight. Williams and Roberts gained very valuable playing experience and should be valuable in the future to some senior college team.

Bears fight with Determination

A football team is an army of devoted players fighting for a common purpose: fighting for victory. The training and hard practice they must endure goes unnoticed by most people. The Bears practiced every day for several tough hours of sweat, heat, and dirt. Free time was valuable, and studying was a necessity. All the practice and working out gave way to a closely knitted team with enthusiasm and pride to endure any conflict.

Upper left: Fans follow Bears. At the end of the game they invaded the benches to walk the team off the field. Far left: Football boys are enthusiastic at pep rallies. Above: Pee Wee Cavin executes a tackle on opposing ball carrier. Left: A pass is about to be received by Tommy Toler.

Signs of Encouragement were Everywhere

Evident from the bright signs all over the campus, the student body kept the spirit going strong throughout the football season. Pep rallies were full of exploding voices and original skits.

Above: Israel Garner bounces to sink it during the first game of the season.
Top Right: Coach Young proudly holds up our bear after getting it back from Co-Lin the night before.

“We got the bear back!”

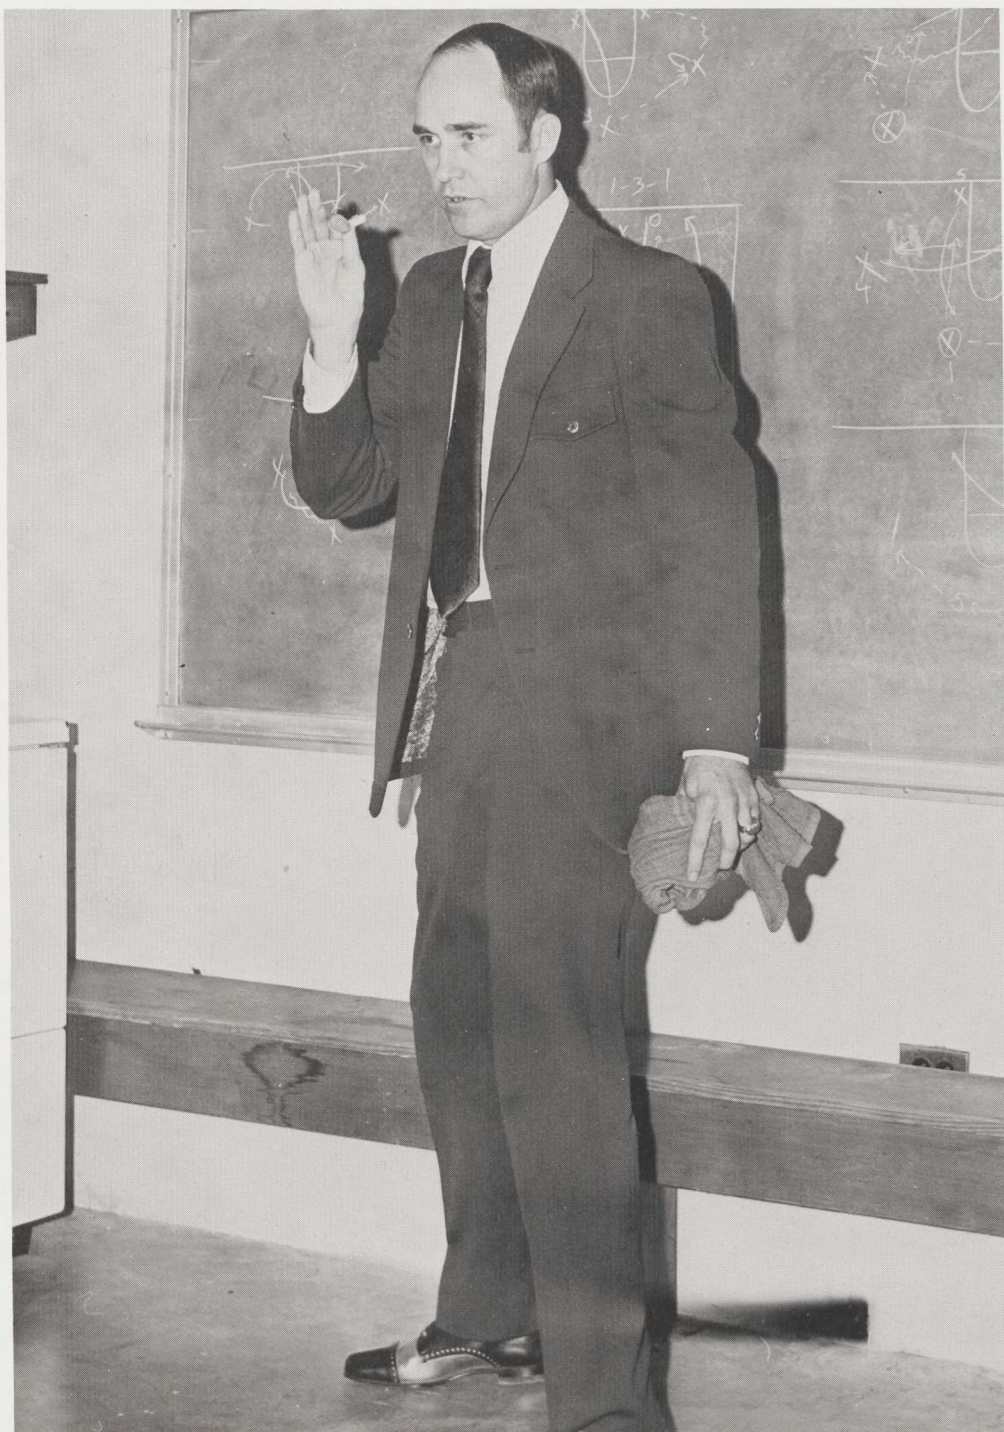

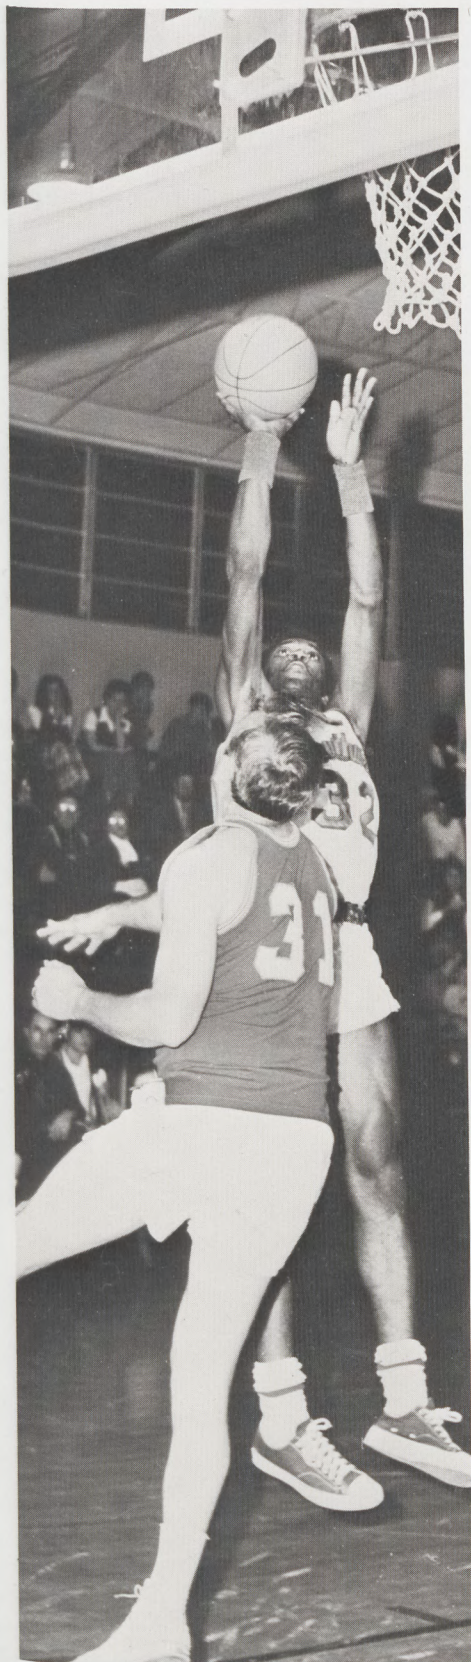

Voices yelled victoriously the night the Bears met the Co-Linwolves for the first time. The SMJC student body not only gave the Bears fantastic support, but they recovered the wooden bear taken by some Co-Lin students a few years earlier. The Co-Lin students had been waving the bear at Southwest students for several years during the games. The recovery of the bear high-lighted the hard-fought game by the bears.

Basketball is a tedious, nerve-racking sport which no amateur can play successfully. The sport takes hours of training and conditioning. You can rest assured that Coach Young had his Bears trained efficiently and definitely in shape.

To a dedicated basketball player there are three main aspects in his life: First of all, religion which gives him a feeling of warmth, love, and satisfaction; Secondly, his family which gives him encouragement; Thirdly, is basketball, the game in which he has spent half of his life learning to play. together, talk together, cry together, laugh together, and finally they play the game together. Victory is received with great pride and joy while defeat is a hard slap in the face. But the mark of a good team is to never give up and to play each game as if it were the last. This is what the Bears of SMJC did this year. They gave it their best, never gave up, and even though the scoreboard didn't show it sometimes, they were our champs.—Curtis Brewer

Tips Club is Active in Community Projects..

"Concern" is an important word to the Tips Club. During the Thanksgiving season, the members prepare a food basket and deliver it to someone in need. Christmas is a busy time spent in giving happiness to an orphan. Each Year TIPS adopts a child from the Baptist Children's Village in Jackson, Miss. They surprise the child with a visit and a load of Christmas toys and clothes. They also send him something for Easter.

The purpose of the Future Secretaries Association is to bring to the student a better understanding of the business world, through association with experienced secretaries. This program stimulates interest in the secretarial profession, and encourages an appreciation of the importance of basic skills. It also encourages students to aspire to a high level of competence through a continuing program of education after graduation from school or college.

DMT develops Future Leaders for Marketing and Distribution

The SMJC Mid Management Club began its first year with many activities and much enthusiasm.

The primary objective of the Distribution and Marketing Technology curriculum is to prepare students for full-time employment in the different areas of Marketing and Distribution. The graduate of the DMT program will have the opportunity to begin a career at any point from the beginning sales person to an owner or manager in the field of business. One of the advantages of this program is that enrollment is available to both male and female on an equal basis.

“OK ya’ll, let’s yell!”

The student Body is proud of our 1972-73 cheerleaders. They have done much for the spirit of Southwest this year. Pep Rallies were brightened with hilarious skits and lots of new cheers. The Cheerleaders attended a cheerleading camp last summer at Perkinson Jr. College where they won two awards for superiority and two awards for excellency. From the student body: "Thank you, Cheerleaders."

The Year, '72-73

It was not a perfect year.
But has there ever been a perfect year?
Has there ever been a year
When all the love and health and fame
We wished for one another
Ever came to pass?
Yes, despite the disappointments of these, our complex lives,
We learn to make do make better make believe
That better days will come.

And if we do continue to believe
Who is to say
The perfect year
Will not yet be here?

Early Homecoming in Late Summer

Classes had been in session only three weeks when Homecoming dominated school activities. Clubs were busy working on their cars and floats for the annual Homecoming parade. Behind the scenes the administration and faculty planned the activities, parade, and the alumni meeting and banquet. SGA members sold corsages and prepared for the Homecoming dance.

The total working of students and faculty at SMJC made the '72 Homecoming successful and unique.

Upper left: One of the floats in the homecoming parade, "This is for Peaches." Lower left: Jerry Clower, a well-known Mississippi comedian and an alumnus of Southwest extends a greeting. Center: President Horace Holmes crowns our happy queen, Janet Varnado. Above: Cathy Conerly, Joan Schmidt, and Regina Blades make flowers for a float during P.E. class.

On the morning of Saturday September 16th, everyone was busy making last-minute preparations for "open house" in the dorms. Both dorms were open to everyone displaying brightly painted rooms.

As time for the parade approached, dark clouds invaded the sky and everyone crossed his fingers. The parade was successful in McComb. But it drowned on the way to Summit. Then it was every man for himself. Cars and floats gradually disappeared from the parade route. But it was fun anyway.

Reluctantly, the rain stopped in time for the presentation of the Homecoming court on Hurst Field. Members of the 1972 Homecoming court were: Janet Varnado, Queen; Vicky Pierce, Football Maid; Vicki Turnbow, Student Body Maid; Val Balser, Sophomore maid; and Linda Cimmins, Freshman Maid.

During the half, the alumni were presented. Jerry Clower, comedian, was honored as the alumnus of the year.

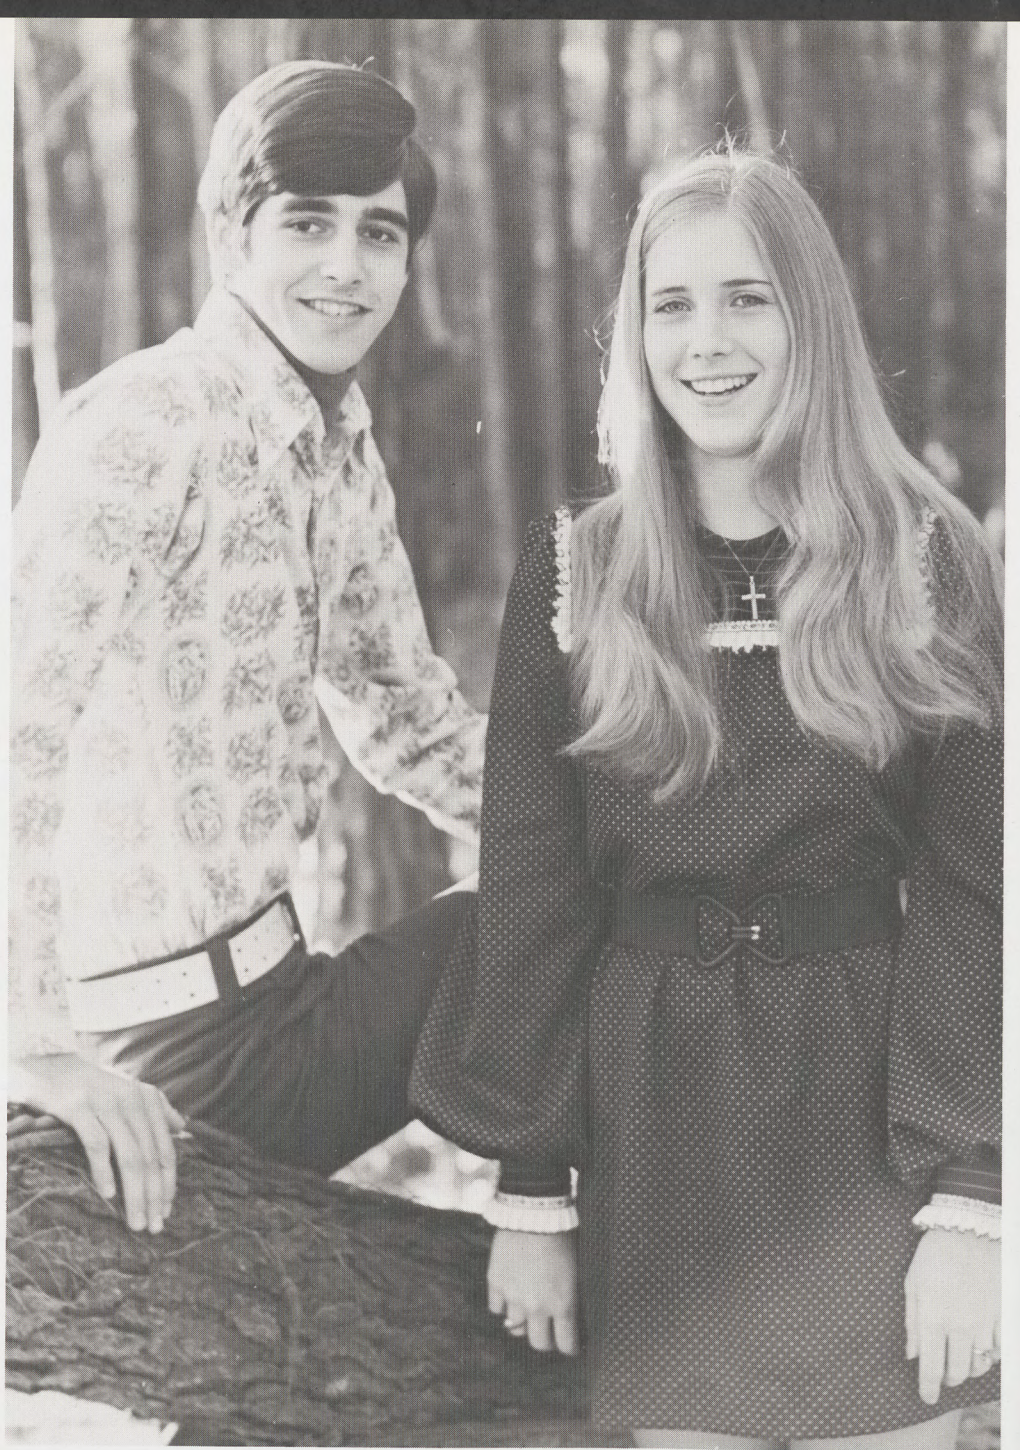

Following the game students danced to the music of the Isosceles Popcicle. Crumpled corsages, tired feet, and hoarse voices said good bye to Homecoming '72, a memorable experience.

Phi Theta Kappa: An Exchange of Ideas

All regularly enrolled academic students of Southwest are members of SGA. A student Council composed of the presidents of each student organization, two faculty members and the regularly elected student body officers, are charged with directing the activities of SGA. The purpose of SGA is to bring about a closer understanding among students and faculty; to sponsor social activities; to encourage scholarship, leadership, and citizenship; and to contribute to the betterment of the school and its educational program.

The purpose of Phi Theta Kappa is to recognize and encourage scholarship among junior college students. Working toward this goal, Phi Theta Kappa provides opportunity for the development of leadership and service, and intellectual climate for exchange of ideas, lively fellowship for scholars, and stimulation of interest in continuing academic excellence. To be eligible for membership, the student must achieve an over-all average of 3.4 and maintain a 3.0

The His World Singers, made up of 25 students, has presented many programs throughout a four county area.

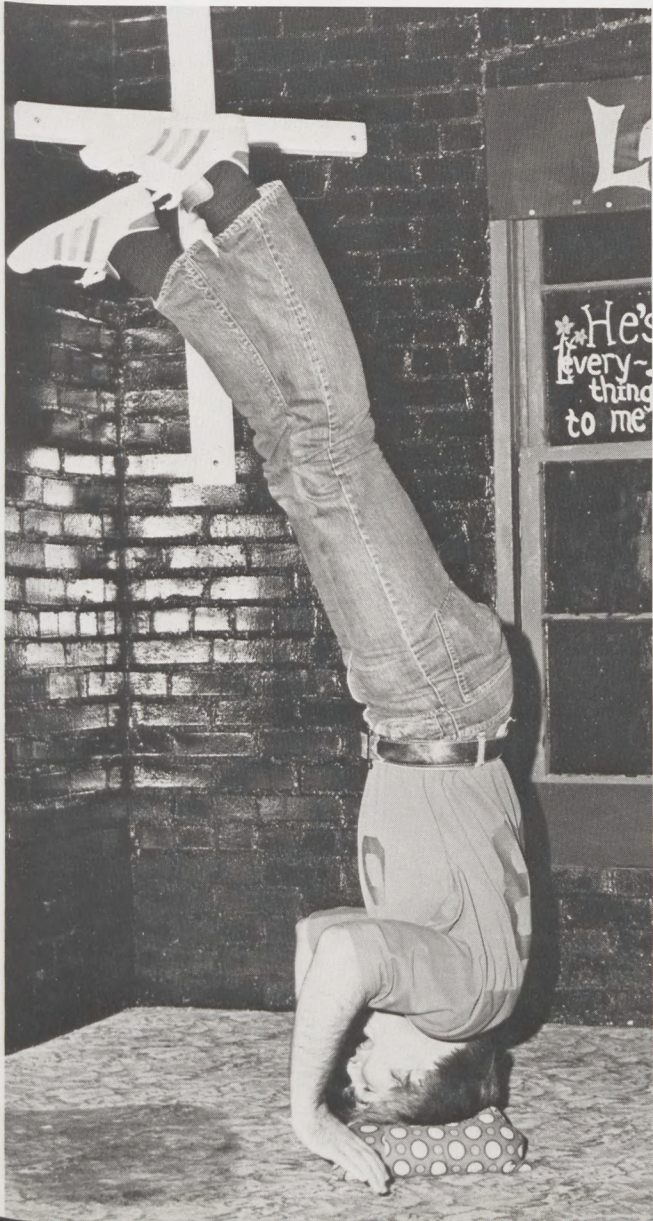

BSU projects for the past year include co-sponsoring the Thanksgiving Vesper Service, Religious Emphasis Week, and fund-raising projects for the Student Summer Mission Programs.

BSU students attended the State Convention, Youth Night, and the State Leadership Conference.

The BSU director is Mr. Donald Dick and the 1972-73 officers are: Clay Campbell, President; Anita Carraway, Vice-President; and Katherine Milton, Secretary.

SMJC Chorus brings Christmas to Campus

Singing almost every kind of Christmas song one can imagine, the chorus brought much cheer to everyone. The chorus had been practicing since early fall on their Christmas program. That was evident.

The Chorus sings Seasonal music for campus assemblies and area meetings. Open to all students, the chorus members sing a variety of music from early classics to the latest pop tunes. Yearly activities include one short out-of-state tour.

The Practical Nursing Program began in November 1969. This is class number four, and each member of the group is required to complete 1200 hours clinical practice and 800 class hours in room study. After one year each student that satisfactorily completes our requirements is awarded a diploma from SMJC and is eligible to write a Mississippi State Board Examination for Licensure to practice as a Licensed Practical Nurse in the state of Mississippi.

It's hard to believe that the Whispering Pines was once an idea. It was an idea that changed much from its original purpose. It was accompanied with much conflict from the dreading of deadlines with still much to do. Many times we were discouraged as we realized layouts needed to be redrawn and pictures retaken. But there were the fun moments when we made so many mistakes that there was nothing left to do but laugh. It was horrifying to think that something was lost or ruined. But all the planning and work made this year as editor a worthwhile year in my life and I guarantee I'll never forget it.

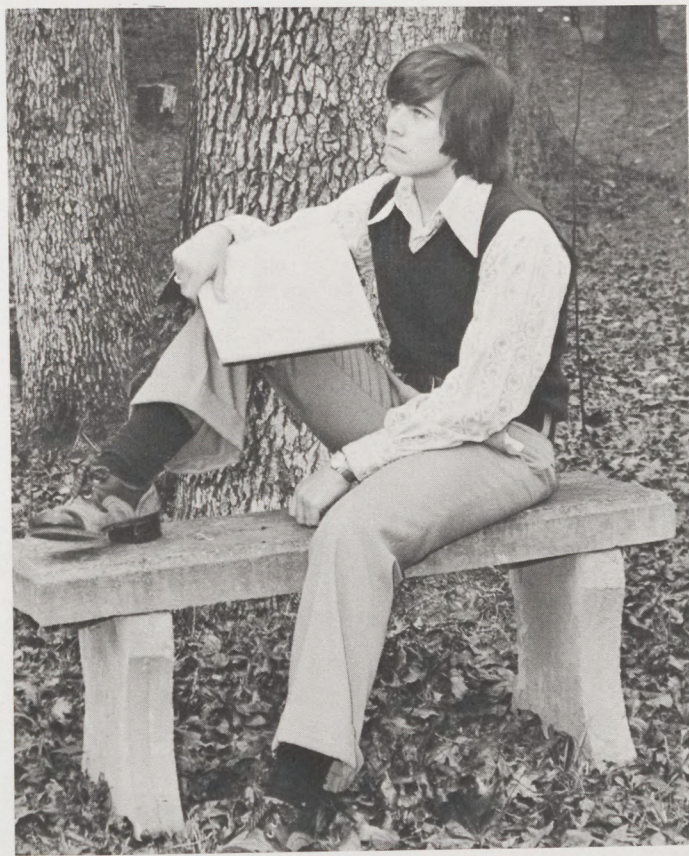

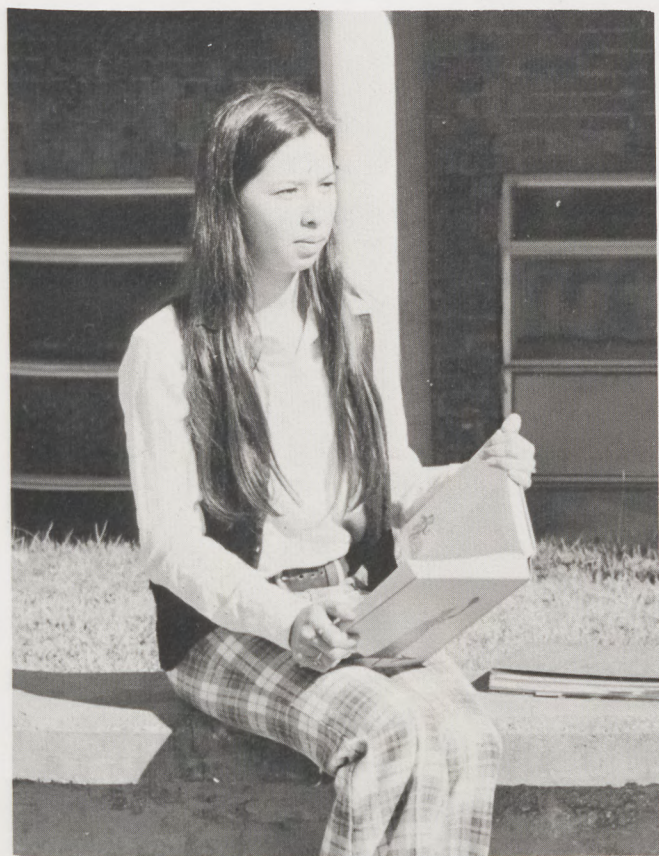

I would like to thank everyone who did something for this annual. Also those students who were not able to have their picture with the staff are Margie Neyland, Marcie Bounds, and Tonia Logue.—Val Balser

“The deadline for these articles is next Friday.”

Put out a good issue and nobody complains. Misspell a name or goof on a story and the complaints pour in. Everyone expects a good job from a newspaper. The Pine Burr Staff has worked extra hard this year to include new type of stories and polls. Under the direction of Brian Askew, Editor, the staff has produced numerous articles of interest directed toward student attitudes.

The Pine Burr Staff members are: Marsha Brock, Assistant Editor; April Timmons, News Editor; Marsha Kimble, Club Editor; John Walker, Alumni News Editor; Tommy Daughdrill and Art Fesmire, Sports Editors; Anita McCaffery, Feature Editor; Dwight Bridges, Cartoonist; Ricky Johnston and Cecil Rimes, Photographers; Mary Johnson and Melinda Brumfield, Typists; Bob Kleinpeter, Circulation Manager; Anita Carraway, Val Balser, Mary Johnson, Katherine Milton, and Jane Grega, Reporters.

The House of the Mouse

The House of the Mouse Exclusive is a fun-loving organization dedicated to promoting fellowship among student groups. All students are actively urged to join this inspiring plutocracy since they have already donated to the Mouse Club Treasury when they paid their tuition fee. This little known fact allows carefully selected members to throw extravagant parties otherwise not affordable. It is with this thought in mind that we extend SMJC our kindest regards and best wishes.

The House of the Mouse also introduced intramural sports to Southwest by organizing a volleyball team, the Fighting Mice. They played P.E. boys and the football team along with other groups. It was a successful year for intramural sports and the Mouse Club.

SMJC Band Marches in Six Parades

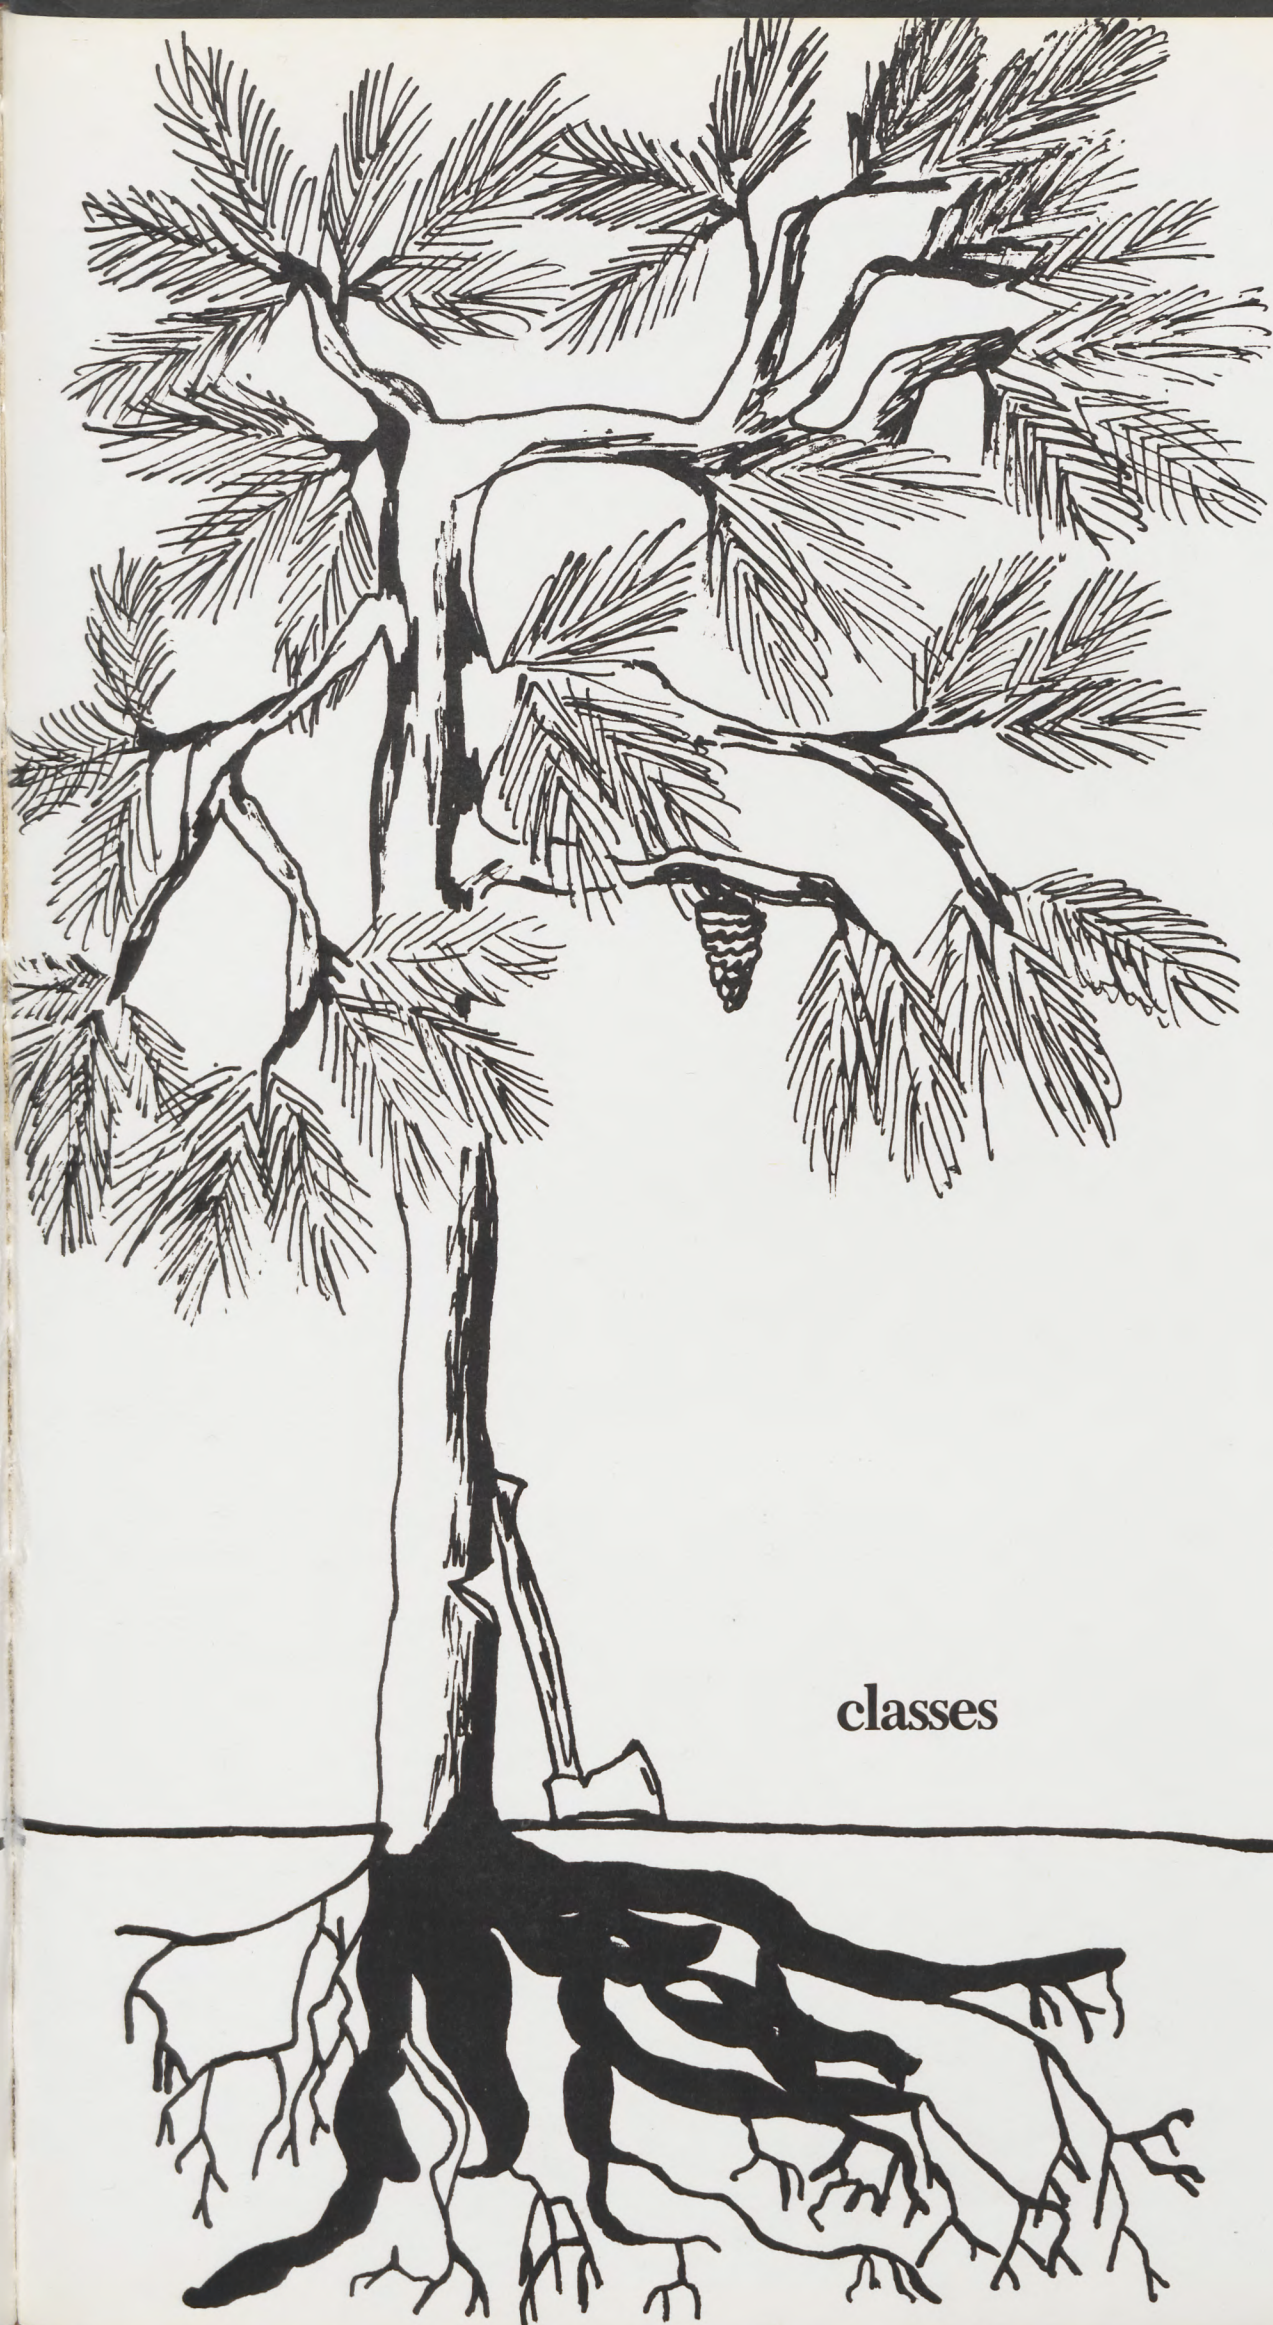

Sore feet and tired arms were the trademarks of the band members after a parade. During the Christmas season the band marched in six parades throughout the four counties. They made quite a name for Southwest. But they agreed that six parades was too much for their feet.

The members of the 1972-73 SMJC Marching band are as follows: Keith Blackwell, baritone; Marcie Bounds, redline; Joseph Callendar, trombone; Donna Ditcharo, drums; Lana Felder, bells; William Ford, drums; Debra Halbert, redline; Johnette Hay, redline; Don Jackson, tuba; Mary Johnson, redline; Marsha Kimble, redline; Robert Kleinpeter, cymbals; Tonia Logue, French horn; Ben Magee, trumpet; Richard McMorris, tuba; Debra Norman, redline; George Oakes, trumpet; Phillip O'Donnell, trumpet; Ginger O'Quin, redline; Linda Owens, trumpet; William Ratcliff, saxophone; David Robinson, drums; Wanda Watts, clarinet; Meynell Wilson, redline; Melinda Laurie Van, redline; Bonnie Atchison, saxophone; Debba Brown, bells; Tommy Lear, drum major; Gwennie Sorrels, redline; Leroy Atchinson, trombone; Mary Atchison, saxophone; Wrenell Bond, bells; Marsha Brock, saxophone; William Callender, trombone; Dub Darville, baritone; Ike Fesmire, drums; Herby Hyatt, trombone; Tony Prescott, trumpet; Susan Prestridge, clarinet; Charles Sterling, trumpet; Vicki Turnbow, redline.

Nurses attend to patients through experience

In early October Kenna Hall was the scene for the Practical Nurse Graduation exercises. The Director of Male Psychiatric Service at Mississippi State Hospital, Whitfield, Dr. Robert M. Ritter, addressed the graduates in the third class of practical nurses at SMJC. Of special interest was the fact that Edward Russ was the first male graduate in practical nursing at Southwest.

Upper Center: Mrs. Jessie Mae Kennedy, nursing instructor checks role before class. Upper Right: Mrs. Lefay Holmes prepares her class lecture in nursing. (Instructor) Left: Mrs. Jenny Cutrer gets her cap from Mrs. Kennedy. Above: Edward Russ receives pin.

SMJC: A Puzzle of People

Above: The pep band is a vital part of a pep rally. Below: Miss Nybro laughs, glad that the pie throwing is over. Far upper right: Dawn Patterson, Mary T. Moore, and Debbie Parsons feed the bear. Lower middle right: Dr. H.T. Huddleston poses in part of his "elf" costume after the Christmas parade in McComb. Far right: Mrs. Brewer takes a swing at returning a serve as Mrs. Williams looks on.

When classes are over . . .

Friendship,
Diligence,
Encouragement . . .

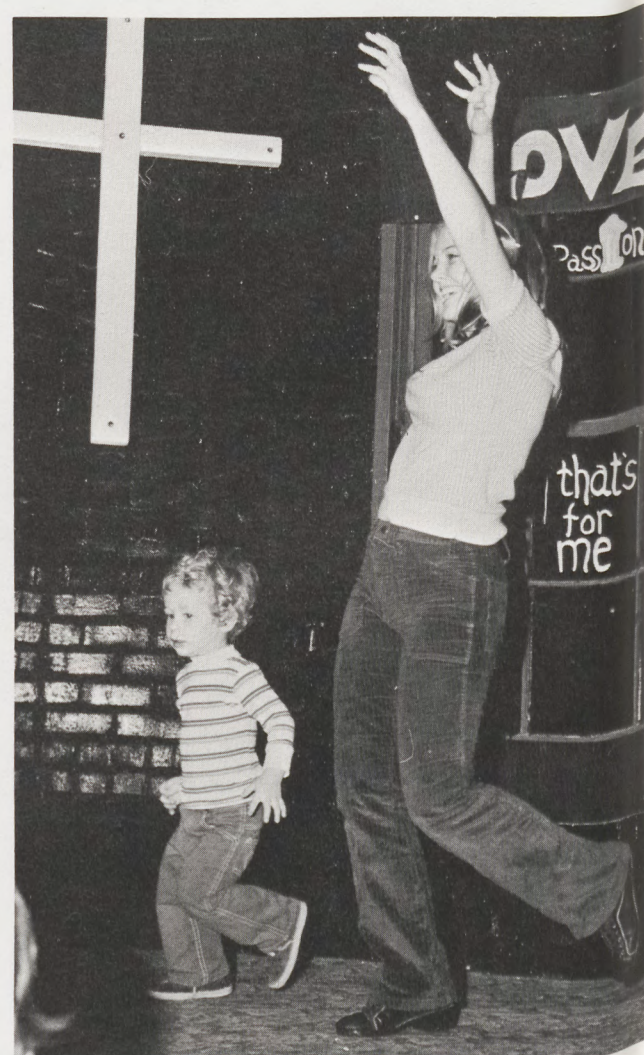

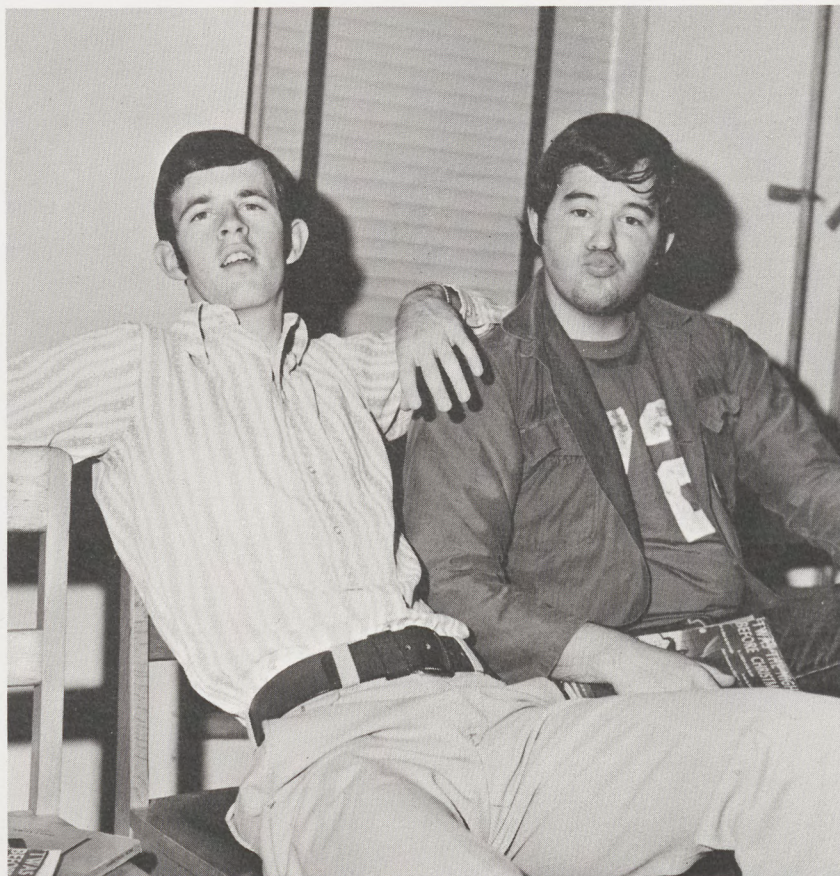

Bottom left: A new addition to the language department is the language lab. Here students are at work on semester exams as they use the ear phones.

“I’m glad that’s over with!”

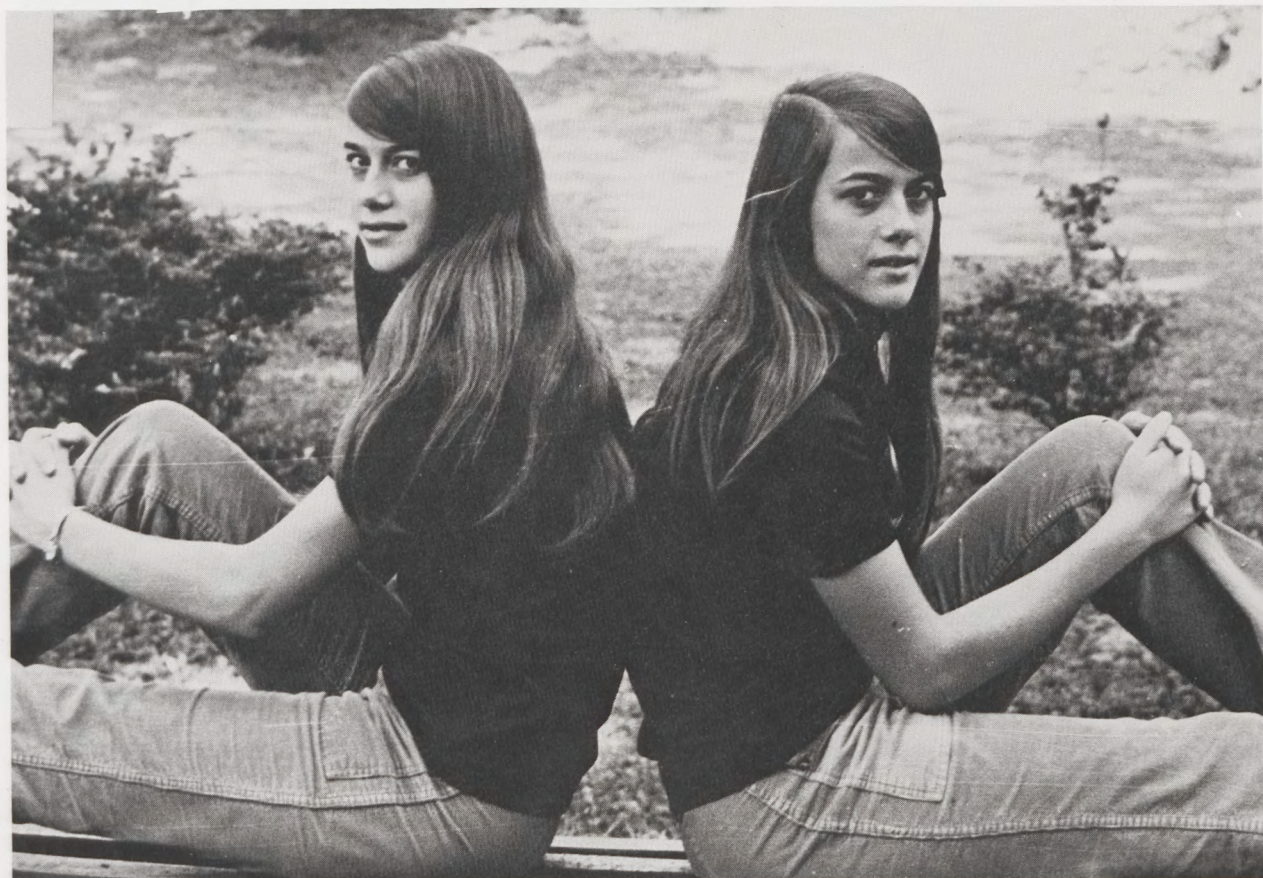

Those are happy words to a freshman after registration (below). Left: Curtis Brewer and Clay McLean take a break between songs in chorus class. Bottom Center: A ballet is being performed by Ken Dick and Becky Smith at the BSU Christmas Party. Top Right: Mrs. Vaughn and Mrs. Bates, the bookstore managers, stop a while amid the confusion after the Christmas parade in McComb. Far Right: Evidence of work. Bottom Right: The SMJC band invades the streets during the Christmas parade in McComb.

Far Upper Right: Ricky Johnston spots something that would make a good picture. Bottom Right: Bill Ford, Bob Kleinpeter, and Stan McMorris are the crop crew for the stage band. Top Left: Rusty Hewitt has a boat in his room. He often takes it out to fish in Bear Lake. Right: The Mouse Club's car in the homecoming parade.

Remember those crazy things we did?

There are people we remember

A deep thinker with a sense of humor, a thoughtful person who chose his friends carefully; both those around him and those from the shelves of a library,

A worker for the betterment of his family
and home,

A hunter and lover of the outdoors,

A Sunday School instructor and a concerned individual,

A wide reader and a diligent student,

A 1972 graduate of SMJC,

A living memory . . .

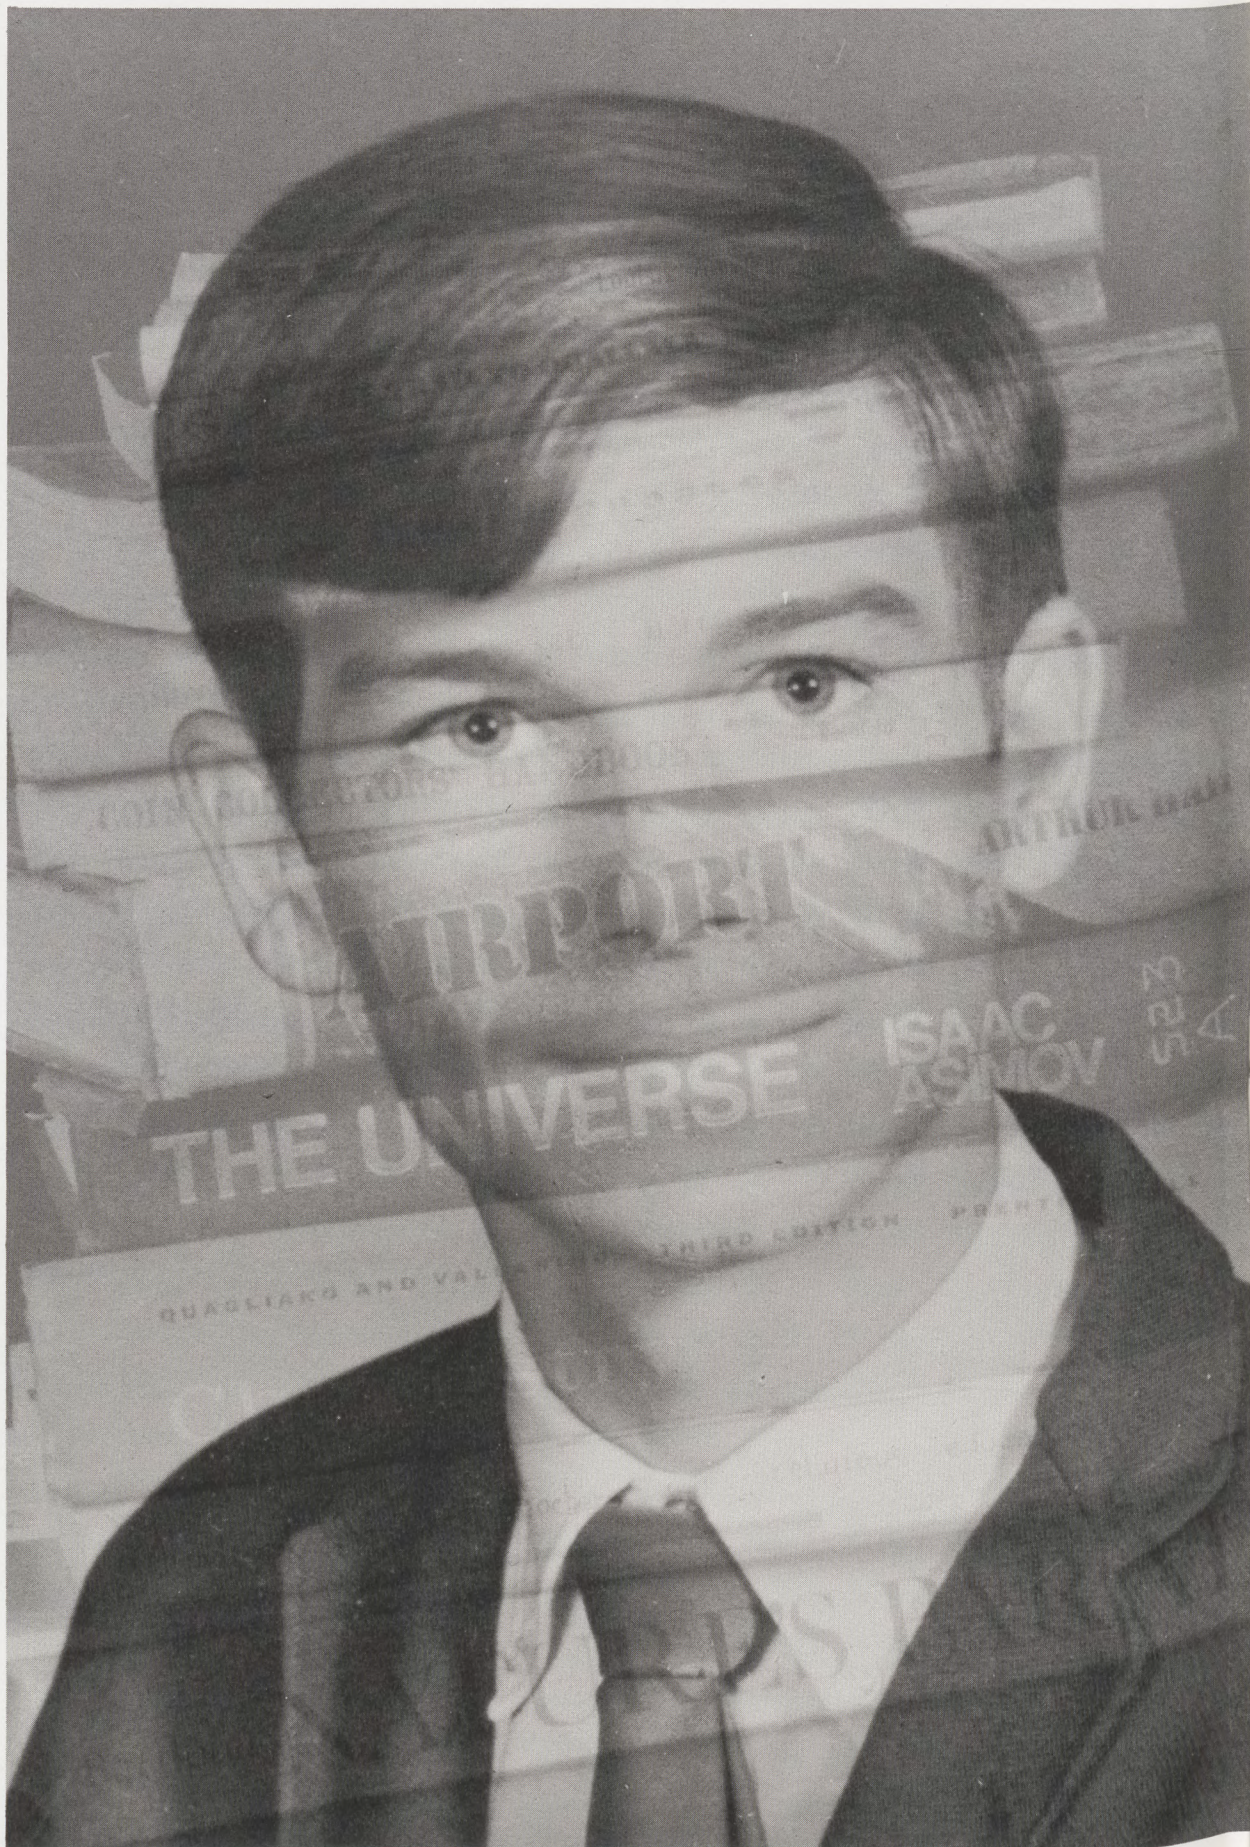

George Balser Gent

June 29, 1952

May 22, 1972

On the opposite page are the words of George's favorite song, "Sometimes".
This song is also relevant to everyone of us and to SMJC.

("Sometimes" lyrics are by Felice Mancini; Music by Henry Mancini. It is sung by the Carpenters).

Sometimes

Not often enough,

We reflect upon the

Good Things,

And those thoughts

Always center around

Those we love,

And I think about

Those people

Who mean so much

To me, and,

For so many years

Have made me

So very happy

And I count the times

I have forgotten

To say

Thank You

And just how much

I love them.
